Unlocking the Past,
Connecting Generations:
Discover Your Family's Legacy

5 Reasons to Join

1. Become a better researcher, build new skills to help your family history.
2. Make and spend time with genea-friends.
3. Discover and preserve records.
4. Advocate for genealogy, including for increased record access.
5. Help grow the genealogy world.

We Can Help

- ▶ Research an ethnicity, population or place.
- ▶ Develop research, evidence analysis, or writing and publishing skills.
- ▶ Tackle hard-to-read handwriting, elusive records, or mysterious old pictures.
- ▶ Master new technologies.
- ▶ Find common ancestors.

WAGS offers opportunity to volunteer in indexing, assisting other genealogists, and fundraising.

WAGS is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization and is a member of the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society and the National Genealogical Society.

WAGS accepts donations of any family information, genealogy, photos, published or unpublished books.

WAGS offers a Pioneer or Settler Certificate.

WAGS publishes a quarterly newsletter and welcomes submissions.

WAGS hosts monthly meetings/educational programs and opportunities for sharing successes and brick walls.
